Payment terms

- Payments are due in line with this payment plan.
- If you are on a study break, tuition fees will continue to be payable until total fees payable have been paid in full.
- If you are in arrears at the end of your current module, all outstanding fees must be paid before you can start a new module.
- If you are in arrears at the end of your programme, we reserve the right to withhold your award certificate until the debt has been cleared.
- All payments made in respect of student fees and other charges must be received in pounds sterling.
- Any currency conversion costs, or other charges raised by the remitting bank when making a payment shall be borne by you or the third party making the payment.
- Tuition fees are reviewed annually. We reserve the right to increase tuition fees in line with the RPI-X index and apply applicable sales taxes.
- For detailed information on tuition fees, payments and refunds, please refer to our terms and conditions.

Important information for students funding their postgraduate programme via a tuition fee loan from the Student Loans Company (SLC):

- Your postgraduate loan will be paid to you directly by the Student Loans Company (SLC) in three annual instalments each year over two years. It is your responsibility to ensure that your payments to us are made in line with your payment plan.
